SALEM N. C.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1888.
[Entered as second class matter at Post Office at Salem, N. C.]

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

NORTH CAROLINA EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

God is recognized in the Constitution of our State, and should be ever honored as the Supreme Ruler of the Universe in the hearts of our people. To Him we are indebted for our country and her civil institutions, for our religion and its adaptation to man's wants and happiness, together with the numberless mercies and blessings which have crowned our daily lives.

I, therefore, Alfred M. Scales, Governor of North Carolina, in view of our dependence and God's goodness, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 29th day of November, 1888, as a day of thanksgiving and praise, and I earnestly request the people of the State to assemble themselves together to praise His holy name, and to invoke for the perpetuity of our institutions and the continuance of His blessings; and while in discharge of these sacred duties, let us also contribute of our substance to the poor and needy and the widow and orphan, and especially would I invoke the generosity and prayers of the people for the Orphan Asylum at Oxford, where so many orphans are in training for life.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this 12th day of November, 1888, in the one hundred and thirty-ninth year of our American independence.

ALFRED M. SCALES,
By the Governor.

C. H. ARMFIELD,
Private Secretary.

—The State Fair at Columbia, S. C., last week, is said to have been the most successful ever held there.

—A dispatch from Muskegon, Mich., says the worst storm of the season prevailed there on the night of the 16th.

—The recent earthquake in California was the severest since 1871, in some places children were rolled out of their cradles.

—Heavy fall of snow Sunday night in Maryland and West Virginia. Also in Northern Illinois, Indiana and Eastern Iowa.

—An insufficiency in the appropriations has made necessary an order for the general suspension of work at the navy yards.

—It is reported that John W. Wainwright, the great Philadelphia merchant, contributed $100,000 to the Republican campaign fund.

—Fifty prominent citizens of Marion county, Ala., took the Mormon proselyting elders out Sunday night and tarred and feathered them.

—Official returns show that the Democrats elected their entire State ticket in West Virginia, and the Legislature is Democratic by two majorities.

—The marriage of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, of England, and Miss Endicott, daughter of our Secretary of War, took place in Washington last Thursday.

—Representative Perry Belmont, of the First New York district, has accepted an appointment as U. S. Minister to Spain, to succeed J. L. M. Curry, resigned.

—About $15,000 in silver coin has been recently stolen, while in transit from the New Orleans mint to the U. S. Treasury. The Express Company made good the loss.

—The Secretary of the Treasury has appointed the following storekeepers and gaugers: Henry L. Stone, at Stony Ridge, N. C.; Wm. H. Brann at Hamptonville, N. C.; and Wm. F. Ward at Bellamy, N. C.

THE PENITENTIARY.—The question is frequently asked why our State penitentiary cannot be made self-supporting? In the history of 1887, the penitentiary expenditures were $81,621, receipts $85,066.

—More than a sixth part of the land of the globe and nearly a sixth part of the population of the world are under the control of Great Britain. Russia ranks second in territorial extent and the United States third.

Roanoke's Great Boom.

ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 15.—This city is enjoying a real estate boom unprecedented in the history of Southwest Virginia. The real estate sales yesterday aggregated the handsome sum of $112,000, and for the past two weeks they will average $50,000 a day. The city is thronged with capitalists and speculators, many of whom are looking for sites for manufacturing enterprises.

The free-delivery system will be put in operation here January 1st.

—The Post Office Department is soon to have a new style of postal card. It is much like the double card of the present pattern, the back folds are split diagonally and open out like a pointed star. The four corners are folded and joined in the center, when the card is ready for mailing, with a piece of gummed paper. The card weighs less than half an ounce, and will contain no more writing than the present card, the only advantage being greater privacy.—Sentinel.

Durham's Financial Crash.

PLUCKY DURHAM UNTERFIERED AMID THE DISASTER.

Like a flash of lightning from a clear sky, to many, was the announcement this morning that Col. W. T. Blackwell, President of the Bank of Durham, together with a number of our leading business men had made assignments. The news spread like wildfire, and it was not long before the matter was the topic of comment upon the streets. There was no undue excitement, however, and the failures were discussed with calmness and a determination to make the best of the situation.

Investigation proved that matters were not as bad as was at first feared. The Bank of Durham, we are assured, will pay one hundred cents in the dollar upon every dollar of its deposits, and it is thought that others will equally or quite pay every dollar that they owe. The failures were not due to the lack of assets, but to the want of assets to meet pressing demands.—Durham Tobacco Plant, 10th.

The Baptist State Convention.

The fifty eighth annual session of this body met in Greensboro last week, and the reports of the boards and various departments of labor show that this great body of Christians have made great progress with in the past year. Its contributions to the various objects it has in charge amounted to about $28,000.

It has ninety-five missionaries and thirteen colporters in the field. The action of the Convention looks to a broader field and larger work for the next year. Among the important matters, were initiatory steps for establishing a North Carolina Baptist Female College. The Convention will meet in Henderson next year. W. H. Pace was re-elected President and W. H. Broughton, Secretary. Dr. T. E. Skinner, H. A. Brown and G. H. Blount, Vice-Presidents, and W. S. Grandy, Treasurer.—Furmer.

Wilmington Star Outlines.

—Germany and other European powers are about to unite with England in efforts for the suppression of slave trading on the African coast. Some U. S. troops, including a captain and a private citizen, who were found hunting on Mexican territory, on the Rio Grande border, have been taken prisoners by a force of Mexican soldiers. The report of the general secretary and treasurer of the Knights of Labor shows that the order is largely in debt, and that during the past fiscal year the membership has decreased about three hundred thousand; between 10,000 and 12,000 women are members of the order, and the number has reached 35,000. Further particulars of the mine disaster in Kansas show that ninety bodies have been recovered, and it is believed there are still forty-five entombed; a large number of the killed are French and Italian miners. —The Charleston cotton fire, on shipboard, resulted in the injury of 1,700 bales; the ship was not damaged, the total damages are estimated at $47,000. —A lone highwayman in California went through four passengers in a stage coach and cleaned them of $500.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—In the annual report of the chief naval constructor, Wilson, the strength of the navy and condition of vessels is stated as follows: Five double-turreted monitors awaiting completion; two helix cruisers, preparing for the ways; thirteen single-turreted monitors in ordinary; twenty-three armored steel iron vessels, four of which are in commission, eleven building, two repairing, five on station, and one in ordinary; twenty-eight wooden steam vessels, nearly all on station, and undergoing repairs; and eleven iron and wood steam tug boats.

—The smallest steam engine ever made has been completed, after two years of labor for the Paris Exhibition. It is composed of 180 pieces of metal, is a shade under three-fifths of an inch in height, and weighs less than one ounce, and an ounce. A watchmaker made it.

FALL AND WINTER, 1888.

HINSHAW & MEDEARIS,

FOURTH ST., WINSTON, N. C.

To the Readers of the Press:

When we came to Winston to live her population numbered about four hundred and her business was small. We had faith in the growth of both the town and the country tributary to it, also in our ability to keep our business in advance of both. From year to year we have added to our facilities and to our stock and have made our stock more complete than any in the State. Winston now has a population of about eight thousand, has one Rail Road and is building a more. We are prepared for the increase of business and now offer a stock of more than FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS worth of all of which were bought at the lowest cash prices and will be sold at prices that defy competition. It would take the whole of the Press to enumerate the articles composing our stock and as we have only a limited space we can only mention the different departments and ask each and every one of you to come and see for yourselves.

IN OUR WHOLESALE DEPARTMENTS we can and do compete successfully with Baltimore, Richmond and all Northern Cities.

OUR LADIES DEPARTMENT is more complete than ever and we offer fine DRESS GOODS, FLANNELS, MERINO UNDERWEAR, SHAWLS, CLOAKS, HOSIERY, GLOVES, NOTIONS, DRESS TRIMMING, SHOES, BLANKETS, QUILTS, TRUNKS, SATCHELS, and hundreds of other articles of the very latest styles in great variety at lowest prices.

CARPETS,

We have during this year added to our stock CARPETS and have an elegant line of all grades from HEMP to VELVET at prices lower than same goods were ever sold at retail in this country.

GENTLEMEN AND BOYS will find our stock of CASSIMERES, JEANS, BOOTS, SHOES, SHIRTS, MERINO UNDERWEAR, COLLARS, CUFFS, HATS, TIES, etc., unequalled.

IT IS WELL KNOWN

that we handle the best GROCERIES that can be bought, this accounts for our large trade in COFFEES, SU. ARS, TEAS, MOLASSES, SYRUPS, CANNED GOODS, FLOUR, MEAL, MEATS, and other groceries and provisions.

We have handled the following goods for many years and they have proved to be the best in the market.

Hence we feel justified in making this appeal in its behalf, and beg that every one, housekeepers and men of business, will remember this call, and leave some response at the Hospital on Thanksgiving day.

Honor the Lord with thy substance.—The "SALEM HOME" has now been in operation for more than a year. We think it will be of interest to our many kind friends and well wishers to know that we feel encouraged in the undertaking. We now have twelve inmates, and as winter is upon us, contributions from our friends in town and country will be more than acceptable, such as cabbage, turnips, potatoes, meats, butter, eggs, pumpkins, &c.

Persons willing to contribute such material aid will please make it known to Mrs. Dr. Shaffner, or send direct to the Home.

A rehearsal of the programme of the Salem Orchestra's Concert on tomorrow night was held in the Academy Chapel on Tuesday night. The work of the Orchestra should be of deep interest to all our people, for its performance is deserving of the highest commendation, without taking the general character of the music into consideration. The Concert on Friday night will show much improvement over the work of last season, pleasing as that was. There is a finer finish, a more merging of individuality into one sympathetic whole, which is absolutely essential in good orchestral work. The programme for the orchestra will be entirely of new selections, chief of which will doubtless be the Danube Waltzes, whose delicious melody is most admirably interpreted and accentuated. The new novelties will be given by Miss Evans, of the Academy, who has won many friends already, who will sing several songs. Mr. John Butler will sing a bass solo, with chorus and orchestral accompaniment. Mr. S. T. Mickey will make his first appearance as a solo cornet player, and will give Schubert's Ave Maria and Serenade. The concert will be given on Friday evening, November 23, in the Academy Chapel. Go, by all means.

On!

THE OLD TOWN CENTENNIAL.

On Saturday and Sunday last Old Town celebrated the 3rd centennial since its existence. The first occurred in 1854, being the hundredth year of the settlement. Last summer the monument in memory of the first missionary to Greenland, Matthew Stach, was dedicated, it being 100 years since his death. And on last Saturday the centennial anniversary of the consecration of the church was celebrated.

Rev. R. P. Lineback delivered the sermon, Rev. C. L. Rights being detained by bad roads. In the afternoon a lovefest was held, conducted by Rev. R. P. Lineback. Dr. Rondthaler delivered an excellent address. Rev. C. L. Rights preached at night. Service was also held on Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Swaim, of South Fork Township, was severely burnt this morning, by the explosion of a coal oil lamp. Mrs. Swaim was at the stove, when the lamp, falling on the stove, broke and the burning oil set her clothing on fire, blistering her hands severely. Help was fortunately near and the burning clothing removed in time to prevent further injury.

Moravian Synod of the Southern Province.

The Synod assembled on Tuesday morning last, and was organized by electing Rev. C. L. Rights, President, and Rev. James E. Hall, Secretary. The usual opening services were observed. The following delegates represented the provinces:

The Committee on State of Religion, Finance, Church Activity and Doctrine, reported satisfactory condition, spiritually and temporally among the churches. Since last Synod, Oak Grove church in this county, has been dedicated, and a corner-stone laid to the Sunday School Chapel in the "Reservation Grove," Salem, the building of which is nearly completed.

The Committee on Doctrine, reasserted the old Moravian doctrines, as laid down by the fathers of the Church.

The business of the Synod was completed on Tuesday, by a night session.

The following brethren were elected to represent the Southern Province in the General Synod, to assemble at Herrnhut, Saxony, next Spring: Rev. Edward Rondthaler, D. Dr. James E. Hall and Bro. James T. Lineback. Alternates: 1st, Rev. L. B. Warren, 2nd, Bro. C. T. Pihl.

THE VOTE IN DAVIS.—President—Cleveland, dem., 1,008; Harrison, rep., 1,199; Governor—Fowler, dem., 1,008; D. C. Fogle, rep., 1,204; Walker, pro., 16; Congress—Henderson, dem., 1,018; Ellis, rep., 1,155; Sen. King, rep., 1,018; Kim, dem., 1,158; House—Anderson, dem., 1,003; Hendricks, rep., 1,211.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. V. O. Thompson, Druggist.

The New Annex Hall of Salem Female Academy.

It is evident to the most casual observer that the Academy, in its steadily progressive course, has entered upon an era of prosperity beyond that of any previous time since the late war. Last term the accommodations were taxed to the utmost commensurate with comfort, and by mid-summer the applications of new pupils were so numerous that a new building was a necessity. Work was accordingly begun upon the new Annex Hall, and by pushing the work, with displays of skilled mechanics, the completed building was thrown open for the inspection of our patrons and friends, November 16.

The Hall is an elegant two-story frame structure, 70 feet by 90, in Queen Anne style, with roof of four gables and a deck. It stands in the rear of the old Annex, or Bagge House, the piazza fronting on the yard back of the two principal Academy buildings. The first floor consists of a large entrance hall, 2 study parlors and class-rooms, while the second floor is divided into 36 sleeping alcoves, neatly finished throughout in native pine and oak. Each room is wainscotted in oak, with hard oil finish. Gas is in every department, bath rooms complete on each floor, with hot and cold water, and every modern convenience; sewerage and ventilation are exceptionally complete. Handsome Brussels carpets adorn the study parlors, sofas are upholstered in olive green plush. The exquisite finish of the whole appeals to every artistic, beauty-loving eye.

The two youngest room companies of girls, the 8th and 9th, about 30 in number, moved into this bright, cheery, handsome dwelling, November 17th, leaving 120 for the large Academy. The whole Preparatory department is accommodated in the new Hall with the old Annex, leaving the academic department for the large Academy buildings. This arrangement is specially satisfactory in view of the large number of little girls here at present. The day pupils, who raise the number to over 225, are accommodated in the old Academy; thus our establishment naturally adjusts itself most conveniently as a working whole.

A plank walk, with neat railing, connects the Annex with the other Academy buildings. The only objection our friends from town urge against the new Hall is its distance from Main street, where its beauty would make it one of the finest ornaments of town, all who are engaged in academic pursuits will agree with us that this privacy is its greatest advantage. Mr. J. W. Fries, who planned the new building, and Messrs. Fogle Bros, the contractors, have our warmest thanks for what was so evidently a labor of love on their part.

The old Annex has also been thoroughly renovated and improved, so that it scarcely appears like the same building; class-rooms have been made, pianos placed therein, and the whole is a hive of busy workers.

[Under the personal guidance of Principal Clewell we visited the above completed building on last Friday evening. Salem Female Academy may well be proud of it, together with every friend of the institution resident here or elsewhere. Its charm lies in the simple elegance of everything from gable to ground-floor. It is a home, indeed. The young but don't help, but shoot under such stimulus. It will render doubly precious the name of Salem Female Academy to its favored occupants. The helm of the Academy is in wise and firm hands; nothing will be left undone to guide her on to every success in academic seas. The new building is an especial pride to us from the fact that it is mechanically the product of home brains. Plans, masonry, wood-work, painting, plumbing, interior arrangements, all are native work. Salem has always been slow to herald her deeds abroad, but this building will speak when her tongue is dumb.—COMMUNICATED.]

POLITICAL Bee Hive.

The political campaign of Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight will go into history as one of the former political history of our nation. Almost all political methods imaginable are brought to bear upon the voters in order to induce them to vote solely for the nominees of their respective parties. By some people—party leaders especially—it is considered to be an almost unpardonable and unpatriotic act to cast one's ballot different to what their ancestral training had been or their former political ties, no matter how sincere they are for what patriotic motives prompt them. But, nevertheless, it is a fact undeniable that men who act independently of political parties and are governed by a desire only for our country's good, are the conservators of our nation's welfare. In our State and Nation we have three leading political parties that are asking our suffrages,—Democratic, Republican and Prohibition. Each has its platform of principles, and each is entitled to the honest consideration of all voters. The Democratic party is fighting along the line of tariff reduction, and claims that a higher tariff than it takes to meet the expenses of the government economically administered is dangerous and unjust. The Republican party claims to be for a revision and reduction of the tariff, looking in view the protection of the American manufacturer. The Prohibition party claims that the tariff should be so reduced that no surplus shall be accumulated in the treasury, and the burdens of taxation should be removed from food, clothing and other comforts and necessities of life, and imposed on such articles as will give protection to the manufacturing employer and producing laborer against the competition of the world, but they declare that the paramount issue in politics,—which causes the annual waste of seven hundred million dollars, three-fourths of all the crime and pauperism, and consequently a very large per cent. of the burden of taxation is the liquor traffic, hence they declare for the prohibition of the manufacture, importation, exportation, transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages. It is for one of these three parties that we as voters of our County and State must cast our ballots. It takes sober reflection to be able to cast intelligent ballots. This we cannot do if we are in any way influenced by appeals to passions, prejudice or fear. The ballot is a sacred gift. It is intended to be the expression of a man's principle, and when cast other than according to reason, unprejudiced and unbiased, is a false ballot. Every man is sacredly responsible for his ballot, and the man who violates his conscience and honor for the sake of saving any political party is no better than the man who sells his vote, and both should be disfranchised in order to conduce to our nation's honor.

Back behind a party and its candidates are its principles, and it is for these that our votes are cast and must be counted, and it does not modify our responsibility because we cast it in the interest of any political party, no matter how we love it, nor how hard we have helped to fight its battles, unless its platform and actions conform to our idea of what would be best for the greatest number of people and our nation's welfare. If there is an act in any man's life where conscience should be heard it is in casting his ballot. It is a burning shame that men are to be found who will stifle their conscience, and be led by political demagogues to cast their ballots for the party contrary to what their reason tells them is right. And now we have this to say, and especially to the young man casting his first ballot, no matter what has been the political creed of your ancestors. Remember that a state and nation is made by the freemen who compose it, and whatever strikes at the manhood of a nation strikes at its life. Also remember that a vote for principle is never thrown away though you may not elect a single man you may vote for. A ballot other than for principle is thrown away though you elect all your candidates for a century. Out upon such ethics as are advanced by some political demagogues that a vote is thrown away unless it goes for a candidate that is elected; such doctrine is beneath the notice of any patriot. So, by a slight change of the words of a distinguished N. C. Senator, our advice is, "Say your prayers, mind your wives and mothers," buy your goods at the BEE-HIVE CASH STORE, and vote according to the dictates of conscience and true patriotism, and you will never have cause to fear the result, no matter whose party is hurt.

Yours, anxious to please,

W. D. BAITY & SONS.

A GREAT MAGAZINE.

The Century for 1889.

His question has often been "What does The Century owe its great circulation?" The Christian Union once answered this by the statement that it has been fairly won, but by advertising schemes, but by the excellence which characterizes it in every department. In their annual number for the coming year the publishers state that it has always been their desire to make The Century the one indispensable resource of its class, so that wherever other publications might be desirable in the family, The Century could not be neglected by those who wish to keep abreast of the times in all matters pertaining to literature, science, history, and general information.

With the November number The Century begins its thirty-seventh volume. Two great features of the magazine which are to continue throughout the new volume are already well known to the public, the Lincoln history and the papers on "Siberia and the Exile System," the first of these, written by Messrs. Nicolay and Hay, President Lincoln's private secretaries, contains the inside history of the war, as seen from the White House.

THE SIBERIAN PAPERS, by George Kennan, are attracting the attention of the civilized world. The Chicago Tribune says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." As is a ready known, copies of The Century entering Russia have these articles torn out by the customs officials on the frontier.

DECEMBER 1889 The Century will publish the most important art feature that has yet found place in its pages. It is the result of four years' work of Mr. Timothy Cole, the leading magazine engraver of the world, in the galleries of Europe, engraving from the originals the greatest pictures by the old masters.

A series of papers on Ireland, its customs, landscapes, etc., will appear, and there are to be illustrated articles on Bible scenes, treating especially the subjects of the International Sunday-School Lessons. George W. Cable will write "Strange, True Stories of Louisiana." There will be novelettes and short stories by leading writers, occasional articles on war subjects (equipment) and the famous "War Papers" by General Grant and others, which have been appearing in The Century, etc., etc.
